

Solid and dotted curves take, per block, the cheapest setting that met the accuracy after the fact; they are an oracle lower bound. The dashed curve is one decision made in advance.